Of the amount remitted for annual dues, $130 is forwarded to the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) and $100 is forwarded to the Home Builders Association of Virginia (HBAV). HBAV is authorized to use up to $15 for the HBAV Political Action Committee. If you do not wish for these portions of your dues to be used by the Build-Pac you may, without reprisal, so indicate by written notice to NRVHBA and the amounts will remain in the general funds of the respective organizations. In compliance with the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993, portions of your NAHB and HBAV membership dues (which you pay when you join or renew your NRVHBA membership each year) are not deductible as a business expense because they are allocable to lobbying expenditures. The following information should be provided to your tax consultant for the year 2003.

Home Builders Association of Virginia (HBAV) = 42% of $100 dues = $42.00
National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) = 17% of $130 dues = $22.10

These figures totaling $64.10 represent the non-deductible portion of your annual dues, paid after December 31, 2002. They will likely change every year, and we will advise you as this occurs. Presently, the balance of your total annual dues after subtracting the above figures could be deductible as a business expense. Further information on this law should be obtained from your tax advisor.
